

DEMYSTIFYING

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION FUNDING

This Webinar describes the structure and purpose of the U.S. Department of Education's many and varied programs for post-secondary education institutions, strategies for developing successful proposals for the various programs, how the DED review process works, and the DED's electronic submission process (different from grants.gov). Among the many programs discussed are: FIPSE, Title III (Strengthening Institutions programs), Title IV (TRIO programs), Title V (Hispanic-Serving Institutions), international education programs, programs for special education, programs for rehabilitation research, and others.
